CRISIS STILL ACUTE.

More Trouble For the German Cabinet.
Adjournment of Lantag.

[By Telegraph to the BULLETIN.]

BERLIN, April 8.—The adjournment of the landtag yesterday without having made an appropriation for the salary of the new minister president of Prussia, shows that the cabinet crisis is still acute. The independents and members of the left wing of the National Liberals say that the government now virtually acknowledges that the separation of the chancellorship with the minister presidency was only a temporary makeshift.

The government, in view of the radical and liberal opposition to the separation, they say, has decided to unite the office in the near future under the incumbency of Count Botho Von Eulenburg and therefore avoided the excitement incident upon a needless debate on the proposed appropriation.

It is an open secret that Count Von Caprivi is determined to retire. His pride has been galled by the taunts of the liberals in the reichstag since the appointment of Eulenburg, and he has shown himself to be only half hearted, in his defense of the emperor's course in the recent emergency. Just before the adjournment of the reichstag he remarked to Herr Von Levetzow: "I have little heart for these sham battles."

The chancellor's journey to Carlsbad and the announcement that he is suffering from overwork are regarded as the prelude to his retirement. Few ministers have left the Prussian or imperial cabinet in the last five years without similar advance notices. Caprivi's interviews with Kalnoky at Carlsbad will probably be one of the last negotiations of his career as chancellor. These negotiations, it is said, will concern the recognition of Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria, earnestly desired by Austria, as well as the threatening attitude of Russia on the border.

Another sick man in the emperor's cabinet is the minister of war, General Von Kaltenborn. His illness is said to be diplomatic, and is due to his inability to defend ably the army reform plan of the emperor to be introduced before the reichstag next winter. He has shown himself to be a poor figure in parliament, and in view of the uncertainty of a government majority, an able speaker will take his place. The most likely candidate is said to be Lieutenant General Von Blume, commander of the Eighth division in Erfurt.

OUR MINISTER TO RUSSIA.
He is Coming Home After His Good Work Among the Starving.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 8.—Charles Emory Smith, the United States minister, was given an audience yesterday by the czar at Gatschina, preparatory to his departure for the United States. His majesty spoke appreciatively and warmly of the offerings sent from America for the relief of the famine sufferers, and asked Mr. Smith to convey his thanks to the American people.

Mr. Smith expected to return to the United States last February; but he has been detained here directing the distribution of the flour, grain and provisions sent from America. The distribution is now so well organized that it can proceed on the fixed plans. He will leave St. Petersburg April 18, and will sail from Liverpool for New York on the White Star line steamer Teutonic April 27.

Advice to London Police.

LONDON, April 8.—The Evening News and other newspapers urge upon the police not to interfere too sternly with the unemployed workmen in holding their meetings, or with so-called socialists, who in a quiet manner seek to let off the steam of their discontent in Hyde Park and public places. The Evening News says: "at hours of harangue would be better than an ounce of dynamite. The police are advised, while requiring that all shall obey the law, not to provoke and irritate people to crime by uncalled for interference."

Cruel Mode of Revenge.

DUBLIN, April 8.—Some unknown persons took cruel revenge on a police pensioner who occupied a farm on the Clancaride estate, from which the previous tenant had been evicted, by breaking the legs of forty ewes. Many of the ewes had lambs dependent for sustenance on the mothers.

Will Not Parade the Streets.

PARIS, April 8.—The leaders in the preparations for the May Day celebration have concluded, in view of the recent anarchist outrages and the urgent representations of the authorities, not to have a street parade on that occasion.

G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., April 8.—The annual convention of the Indiana department of the Grand Army of the Republic commenced at 9 o'clock in Princess rink.

Department Commander Walker, of Indianapolis, in his annual report says that the state now has 28,687 members, and there are remaining 25,000 honorably discharged Union soldiers in Indiana not members of the order.

The resolution for soldiers', sailors' wives' and widows' home was unanimously adopted and a committee of thirteen appointed to fix on a way of raising money and location. It was recommended that the subscription plan be followed.

MR. CHEADLE, OF INDIANA.

The following officers were elected: Department commander, Joseph B. Cheadle, Frankfort, majority 213, and made unanimous; senior vice commander, Philemon Dickenson, Fort Wayne, by acclamation; junior vice commander, George H. Koch, New Albany; department medical director, Dr. J. M. Jones, Catract; chaplain, C. Riley, Fairmont.

The other officers are appointed by the council of administration, W. N. Keller, H. H. Ragan, N. Heddington and W. L. Medsker. The officers were installed by Post Department Commander D. N. Foster.

The Woman's Relief Corps was in committee work most of the day. But one officer, Ida McBride, of Elkhart, president, elected.

Evensville was selected as the place for holding the next encampment.

INVESTIGATION TO BE MADE.

Mysterious Death of an Heiress Arouses the Suspicion of Her Relatives.

LANCASTER, Pa., April 8.—A. Q. Martin and J. M. Gingrich, of Lebanon county, are in this city, and have charged that their niece, Ada R. Ebersole, who was buried at Milton Grove, this county, on March 28, had been foully dealt with, and demanded that she remains be disinterred and an investigation be made.

Miss Ebersole died at Dalton, O., and her remains were brought east by the stepfather, Harry R. Weinman, with whom she lived and who is suspected of having caused her death. Mr. Weinman's peculiar actions and different stories he told of the girl's death, and the fact that he would allow no one to come east with him with the body, aroused suspicion.

Investigation has disclosed that the girl, who was in excellent health, was only sick two days, and that as soon as she complained of being ill, and before a doctor was called, Weinman said she would die. Mr. Weinman said a post mortem was held at Dalton, and that five doctors who attended found the lining of her stomach punctured with small holes, but could not find the cause for her strange and sudden death.

The reason assigned by the relatives for the foul play is that Mr. Weinman desired to obtain possession of his stepdaughter's money. She had been left a good sized bequest by her grandfather, and as she was to have been married soon it is thought that Weinman resorted to crime to prevent the money from escaping his grasp. The body will be disinterred and a thorough investigation be made.

DEMON DEEMING.

He Was Once a Resident of the Northwest Territories.

WINNIPEG, Man., April 8.—It appears that Deeming, the English murderer arrested in Australia for crimes, was at one time a resident of the northwest territories. Deeming, under the name of Williams extended his exploits to Canada, where, about 1884, in the province of Assinaboine, he contracted for a large quantity of land.

He afterwards commenced business as a watchmaker, but ultimately decamped with a large number of valuable watches intrusted to him by the settlers, and also with a costly watch belonging to the son of an English nobleman, who was touring in the neighborhood at the time.

The flames were discovered in the residence owned by George Doyle and occupied by Mr. Quigley. The fire spread to two saloon buildings near by, one of them owned by I. and O. Murphy, and to the new residence of Mrs. Margaret Dunn. All four buildings were destroyed, together with their contents. The total loss is estimated at $3,500.

Millionaire Caufield Dead.

FAIRHAVEN, Wash., April 8.—Eugene Caufield, a millionaire, of this place, died yesterday of apoplexy. He was formerly state senator from Wayne county, Ills.

WILL THIS NEVER END?

Another Man Who Claims to Have Found Charley Ross.

ST. LOUIS, April 8.—According to the firm belief of Mr. H. G. Sparks, a reputable citizen of Benton, a suburban town west of this city, the missing Charley Ross, stolen from his parents in Philadelphia on July 1, 1874, is found. If Mr. Sparks is correct in his belief Charley Ross, now arrived at man's estate, is at present living with and employed by him at Benton, and the world-famous mystery of the greatest abduction known to crime annals is about to be cleared up for ever.

So strong is the evidence already gathered in the case that a relative of the boy is even now en route from Philadelphia to Benton, Mo., to meet the young man. The relative is expected to reach here tomorrow. Mr. Sparks says that about four months ago a young man bearing the appearance of a tramp applied to him for work. After becoming acquainted with him the young man told him enough of his history, so far as he could remember it, to convince Mr. Sparks that he was Charley Ross of abduction fame.

Market House Burned.

CHICAGO, April 8.—The Market Hall building in Pullman, owned by the town of Pullman, and occupied by a number of shopkeepers, was burned to the ground yesterday, loss $50,000. The janitor, who slept on the top floor, had a narrow escape from being burned to death, and was rescued with difficulty by the firemen. The fire was started by the overturning of a pan of hot grease in one of the cook rooms in the basement.

After Mexican Bandits.

BROWNSVILLE, Tex., April 8.—Captain Britt received a telegram yesterday from General Garcia, commander of the Mexican troops at Reynosa, saying that a lot of bandits, supposed to be a Garza crowd, is now on the American line of Cameron and Hidalgo county, and asking Britt to take the necessary steps to intercept them. Captain Johnson, commanding at Fort Brown, left with troops yesterday. Captain Britt with rangers left also.

His Victim Still Lives.

IRONTON, O., April 8.—Minnie Hayes, of Hanging Rock, the sixteen-year-old girl whom Daniel McDaniels attempted to murder Wednesday night with a hatchet, inflicting two horrible gashes in her head because she refused to marry him, is still alive but can hardly recover. McDaniels, who attempted to cut his own throat, is improved, but is weak from loss of blood. He is in jail. McDaniels is a widower, forty years old.

Election in Rhode Island.

PROVIDENCE, April 8.—Complete returns of the state elections give Brown, Republican, 196 majority over Wardwell, Democrat, for governor. Bull, Republican, Utter, secretary of state. There was no election for general treasurer or attorney general. The legislature has a Republican majority of 14, insuring the return of Mr. Aldrich to the United States senate.

Missing Child's Body Found.

CLEVELAND, April 8.—The body of six-year-old Edna Calahan, who has been missing since last Thursday, was found on the beach yesterday morning. Her disappearance was a mystery. It was believed she had been kidnaped and a tramp named McAllister is now under arrest on suspicion. The finding of the body leads to the belief that death was due to accidental drowning.

Expllosion in a Colliery.

SHENANDOAH, Pa., April 8.—By an explosion of gas at the Glendon colliery yesterday afternoon Thomas W. Williams was instantly killed and John Phillips and John Myson seriously injured. The explosion was caused by a spark from a drill with which they were drilling a hole, igniting a pillow of gas. They were not to enter a chamber until the gas had been removed.

Traveled in Disguise.

PORLAND, Me., April 8.—A commercial traveler, who went by the name of Watson, died in a hotel in Rockland last week, and all efforts to find any friends or relatives failed. It is now stated that he has been identified as General Steiman, said to have been a noted cavalry officer during the war, who fell into disgrace and disappeared.

Desultive Windstorm.

ALLIANCE, O., April 8.—A windstorm passed a few miles south of this city yesterday and did considerable damage. Several dwellings were entirely demolished, valuable barns were unroofed, whole orchards of fine fruit were destroyed and fences blown down. The storm lasted but a few minutes.

Ohio's Wheat Crop.

COLUMBUS, O., April 8.—The first state crop bulletin of the season was issued yesterday. The average condition of growing wheat in Ohio is 69 per cent of a full average. Twenty-three per cent of the crop of 1891 is estimated to be still in the hands of the farmers.

VENEZUELAN WAR.

His Present Whereabouts Unknown.
The Revolutionary Feeling Spreading.

[By Telegraph to the BULLETIN.]

PANAMA, April 8.—A letter from La Guayra says that General Crespo's troops have been defeated and their position in the vicinity of Ortez has been occupied by the government forces. Crespo has fled, and his present whereabouts is unknown.

The defeat is said to be due to the fact that Crespo had not yet armed all his troops as the rifles and ammunition, destined for his use, were kept back in consequence of the close watch of the government's men along the coast. Although nominally the head of 12,000 men, more than half of them were unarmed and all were undisciplined.

It is not thought that Crespo has left the country. General Arango, who was expected to join Crespo with 2,500 men from Merida, had not arrived at the time of the battle. General Baliza, also an organizer of a small revolutionary army, is said to contemplate joining his forces with those of Arango and continue the struggle. It is regarded as probable that Crespo will reappear shortly at the head of another army.

Despite the reverses of the revolutionists, the disaffection is spreading. The depreciation of the currency has raised prices, and in Valencia and Caracas, meat is sold for forty and fifty

ROSSER & McCARTHY,
Proprietors.

FRIDAY, APRIL 8, 1892.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

"LITTLE Rhody" always has been Republican in Presidential years, anyhow.

It was a bad move to send Cleveland up to Rhode Island. The Hill men lost their enthusiasm from that on.

SOME Republicans don't seem to like this Congressional district as now arranged—it is too kite-shaped. They probably regard their chances as "gone up."

The Skill and Knowledge

Essential to the production of the most perfect and popular laxative remedy known, have enabled the California Fig Syrup Company to achieve a great success in the reputation of its remedy, Syrup of Figs, as it is conceded to be the universal laxative. For sale by all druggists.

Five Per Cent. Reduction.

Colonel W. W. Baldwin arrived from Frankfort this morning. The State Board of Equalization lowered their increase of Mason County's assessment 5 per cent. on land and personality. Half a loaf is better than none.

This leaves the increase by the Board at 10 per cent. on land, lots and personality, and fixes the valuation at 70 per cent. of the real value.

The 5 per cent. reduction secured by the committee saves the county about $4,000 taxes.

By Appeal, and Not By Mandamus.

Judge Brent, in affirming the case of the Commonwealth against Harbeson, taken up from Fleming County, says: "If the County Judge refuses to hear a proceeding by information to compel the owner of property to list it for taxation, mandamus will lie to compel him to do so. But the mere refusal of the Judge to hear all the evidence that may be offered is not a refusal to hear the case. Whenever the proof has proceeded far enough to enable him to come to a decision he can conclude the hearing, and render his judgment; and if he has abused his discretion the remedy, if any, is by appeal and not by mandamus."

A Musical Treat.

There is a treat in store for the music-loving people of this city. The great impersonator Alba Heywood and his peerless company have been booked for the opera house early in May. He is supported by Miss Marietta Siegfried, for three years soprano with the Boston Ideals; Julian Jordan, tenor; Miss Flora Drescher, violin soloist; Henry A. Higgins, cornet soloist; Dewey Heywood, flute virtuoso, and Henry Zimmerman, piano soloist.

WORLD'S FAIR BILL.

The House Votes $100,000 For Kentucky's Exhibit—Legislative Doings.

The House resumed consideration of the World's Fair bill yesterday morning. The voting began on the amendment striking out $100,000 and inserting $75,000. It was defeated by a vote of twenty-nine to fifty-two. The next vote was on the amendment reinserting the Sunday closing and prohibition clauses struck out by the Senate. This amendment was adopted by the big vote of sixty-four to twenty-seven.

The amendment striking out $100,000 and inserting $50,000 was defeated by a vote of 32 to 56. The Peaks amendment, cutting off the per diem of all the Commissioners except the President and Secretary, was adopted, and three of the Commissioners will have to work for honor and glory if the Senate concurs. His other amendment, limiting the traveling expenses of the Commissioners, was defeated.

Mr. Pettit's first amendment, requiring a guarantee from the National Commissioners that the Kentucky loan will be repaid, was defeated by a big majority. Mr. Bashaw's amendment providing that Kentucky get her pro rata of the gate receipts was killed.

Then the question was on Mr. Pettit's substitute to the original bill that cities and counties subscribe for the display, and that no State appropriation be made. This was ruled out of order, and the vote on the bill as amended, appropriating $100,000, was then taken, and resulted: Yeas, 56; Nays, 35.

The Rink building at Augusta is named Russell Hall, after Sol Smith Russell, the eminent comedian. Sol was playing in this building one night several years ago, says the Dover News, and some one fired a pistol at him through a window. The fellow was drunk. This kind of practice didn't suit Sol and he now steers clear of Augusta.

Thomas Guilfoyle was granted license to sell by retail spirituous, vinous and malt liquors at his place of business, corner of Third and Bridge street.

CAPTAIN FITZGERALD is investigating another robbery on the C. & O. A freight car was broken open between this city and Concord and a lot of boots, shoes, oranges, bananas and other stuff taken. Mr. Fitzgerald thinks he has a clue to the culprits.

Coats and Overcoats.

A clothing dealer says that about one-fifth of the masculine portion of the city's population go through the winter without overcoats. In most instances the cause is the lack of money to make a purchase, but there are men who are able to buy but who refuse to wear a top coat. Some of these prefer two or more suits of underclothing to an overcoat. A great many whose occupation keeps them indoors constantly invest their money in street car rides on cold days and get along well enough without the big coat.

A well do merchant scouts the idea of more than one coat at a time. He keeps an assortment of coats of varying weights and uses them in accordance with the high or low temperature. He insists that it is the only way to avoid colds, which comes from overweight of clothing that is used in all kinds of winter weather.—St. Louis Republic.

Some immense vegetables were lately exhibited at Great Falls, Mont. There is a sugar beet weighing twenty-five pounds, a twenty pound turnip, a five pound potato, a pumpkin weighing 120 pounds and a cabbage three feet in diameter, all raised in that vicinity.

THE protracted meeting in the Christian Church at Ripley conducted by the pastor Rev. W. M. Forrest and by Rev. C. S. Lucas, of this city, had resulted in twenty-eight additions up to Wednesday evening. The Dover News says; "The sermons of Mr. Lucas are arousing a great deal of enthusiasm."

MR. J. D. KEHOE, Secretary of the World's Bichloride of Gold Club, writes from Dwight, Ill., that Edward Forman and Richard Watkins were feeling in fine spirits after one day's treatment. During the talk he remarked. "It wouldn't surprise me if Power is in Maysville right now." The stranger did not make his business known. Was it Power disguised?

With large offerings the market held steady, showing no change from yesterday. Common trash, lugs and nondescripts largely predominate, but the demand for both new and old continues active at prices that are accepted by holders. Treasurer Cochran presented an account of $15.94, 12½ per cent. commission on $127.50 taxes collected from the L. and N. Railroad Company. There was some discussion as to whether he or the Marshal was entitled to the commission, and the motion to allow it was lost.

Samuel Smith was allowed $1.92, James Creighbaum $1.94 and Fred Schroeder $5.54 for taking census of the suburbs.

A proposition was read from the Maysville Water Company for laying 4,400 feet of 12-inch mains on Second street in the Sixth ward, with all necessary specials, valves, tees, crosses, etc., for service pipes, including ten fire plugs, at an estimated cost of $2,850, the fire protection to be for a term of seven years. At the expiration of seven years the city is to pay $50 per annum for each of said ten platings. Water rates shall be the same as charged in Fifth ward. Work to begin as soon as proposition is accepted. The proposition was referred to a special committee consisting of Messrs. H. L. Newell, E. W. Fitzgerald, Geo. C. Fleming, Rufus Dryden, C. Rudy, M. F. Kehoe and Wm. H. Cox.

The committee to whom was referred the claim of Frank Hasson for guarding prisoners in January reported, allowing him $1.50 a day for five days. The report was adopted. The original claim was for twenty-six days at $1.50. The same committee reported adversely on O. G. Layton's claim for removing some garbage.

Mr. W. C. Pelham's account for numbering houses and marking streets in Sixth ward, amounting to $150, was all allowed.

The Police Committee was discharged from further consideration of the Driscoll-Mangan shooting scrape. Mr. Pearce said there was no proof that Mangan was drunk at the time. Mr. Newell added that Mr. Mangan proved a character that would do credit to any Sunday school Superintendent.

The Mayor was authorized to establish a pound in which to confine dogs on which tax is not paid.

A communication to City Attorney Kehoe from Wadsworth & Son in reference to C. and O. railroad taxes, was read. The State Railroad Commissioners assessed the road at $27,000 per mile. His company regards this as too high, and will test the matter in a suit to be filed by the Attorney General. The company's valuation is $7,000 per mile, and it is willing to pay the amount of taxes on that valuation now, and then if the suit is decided against them to pay on the balance. One suit can settle the matter, and the proposition is made in order to prevent litigation with every city and county along the route. The question as to paying back taxes will also be settled by the suit. The company's proposition was referred to the City Prosecutor and Committee on Laws and Ordinances.

The following permits were granted:

Charles Greenwood; to erect a two-store frame residence on south side of Sixth street, east of Limestone.

J. W. Pierce; to erect a one-story frame residence on north side of Second street, between Shultz and city limits.

J. Hamilton; to erect coal scales and office on Shultz street, between Second and the river.

John O'Donnell's application for permission to place two barrels of salt on the pavement in front of his business house was refused.

Rev. E. W. Green complained about the condition of the alley in which he lives. Referred to the Committee on Internal Improvements.

The petition of Kackley & Traxel, Mrs. M. J. Lyon, George T. Wood and N. Goldenstein, property-holders on Poplar street, to have the street graded and improved was referred to Committee on Internal Improvements.

The company, as already announced by the BULLETIN, has an arrangement with the C. and O. for shipping freight for points south of the tunnel. It goes to Covington and thence out to Paris. All passengers have to transfer at the tunnel.

The landslides are interfering a great deal with traffic on the Maysville division. It is thought now that it will take three weeks' hard work to clear the track and get everything in running shape.

The property owners on Sixth street, Grant street, West Third street and Forest avenue want better fire protection. Referred to Committee on Fire Department.

The Ways and Means Committee was authorized to borrow $1,000 for the general fund and $500 for school fund.

The Committee on Internal Improvements was directed to open drain on Third street, near Amazon Hall.

The coffee house license of Charles G. H. Schmid was transferred to Charles G. H. Schmid & Co.

The petition of Gray & Co., for coffee house license, at Greelish's old stand on Fleming pike, was read. There was a spirited discussion of the Matter, Mr. Wood being opposed to granting it without first having investigated the subject.

The motion to grant the license was lost by a vote of 11 to 5. The petition was then referred to the Committee on License.

The acceptance of the Maysville Gas Company of the contract for lighting the Sixth ward was read, received and ordered to be recorded.

J. L. Grant, W. E. Wells, Geo. C. Goggin and C. F. Taylor were granted auctioneer's license on compliance with the law.

Complaint was made in regard to the lumber piles on Commerce street. Mr. Haulman thought too much of the street was taken up. Mr. A. B. Greenwood had hurt himself the night before by walking against a piece of timber that stuck out too close to the sidewalk. The matter was referred to the Marshal.

Mr. Fitzgerald called attention to the fact that a great many children in Maysville are not receiving the benefits of the public schools. He thought the city ought to provide a night school for such children and he moved that the Board of Education take hold of the matter and see if this could not be done. The motion was adopted.

The Council then adjourned.

A LANDSLIDE.

Misfortunes never come singly, is an old saying, and the L. and N. Railway Company is finding this true.

An account was given by the BULLETIN Tuesday of the big cave in at Pleasant Valley tunnel the day before. There was another huge landslide yesterday and early last evening, covering fully one hundred feet more of the track with mass of earth and rock. About forty feet of the tunnel was covered by the first landslide.

To complicate matters, the hands at work clearing the track and repairing the tunnel went on a strike yesterday for higher wages. They have been getting $1.25 a day and they now demand $1.50. They refused to go in for any less.

The landslide is interfering a great deal with traffic on the Maysville division. It is thought now that it will take three weeks' hard work to clear the track and get everything in running shape.

The company, as already announced by the BULLETIN, has an arrangement with the C. and O. for shipping freight for points south of the tunnel. It goes to Covington and thence out to Paris. All passengers have to transfer at the tunnel.

FREE WOOL BILL.

It Passes Congress by a Big Majority.

MORE THAN THREE TO ONE.

Yea, One Hundred and Ninety-Two; Nays, Sixty — Chinese Naturalization Measure in the Senate—The Behring Sea Matter Almost Settled — Other Washington Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—In the house Mr. Cobb, of Alabama, from the committee on elections, submitted the minority report on the Noyes-Rockwell contested election case and it was ordered printed.

Mr. Wilson, of West Virginia, then took the floor to close the debate on the free wool bill. At the conclusion of Mr. Wilson's speech the vote was taken on the free wool bill and the measure was passed—yeas 192, nays 60.

In the senate Mr. Dawes presented a petition for the naturalization of such Chinamen as came to this country before the passage of the first exclusion act with the intention of making it their permanent home.

The free wool bill as it passed the house was received in the senate, but that body took no action on the measure.

Behring Sea Matter Almost Settled.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—The differences between the Great Britain and the United States, growing out of the Behring sea matter, have, with the single exception of the question of damages, for the seal catch of this year, it is understood, been formally adjusted. The British minister had an audience with Secretary Blaine at the state department yesterday morning, and J. W. Foster saw the president later in the day on the same subject. The details are being rapidly arranged for the official announcement, which, it is said, will be soon forthcoming.

No Uprising in Hawaii.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—Dr. Mott Smith, Hawaiian minister to the United States, said yesterday that he had advised from Honolulu, dated March 10. No intimation was given of impending trouble there and he did not believe that any existed. There was a small faction led by the Ashford brothers who were opposed to the administration, and they sought every opportunity to foment strife, but the country was peacefully inclined and did not want internal warfare.

The President Not at Home.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—The president, accompanied by Mr. George W. Boyd, of the Pennsylvania railroad, and T. J. Parker left Washington last night for New Church, Accomack county, Va. The president will return here either late Saturday night or Monday morning.

Will Go Into Private Business.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Nettleton has left Washington to be absent two or three weeks. It is understood that Mr. Nettleton at the expiration of that time will enter into private business.

WOOL GOING UP.

The Advance Abroad Puts Strength in the Market Everywhere.

BOSTON, April 8.—The American Wool and Cotton Reporter says editorially concerning the advance in wool in the London market:

"For the first time in many months the announcement is received of an animated and advancing wool market in London. Such news we regard as significant. If this advance abroad is sustained, firmer prices for domestic wool may be seen, because of the increasing prominence which foreign wool has assumed in our markets recently, the absence of any excessive accumulations of domestic stock at the seaboard and the fact that interior markets are so well cleaned up. Whether this advice abroad will be sustained is beyond our province to prognosticate. The present condition of affairs seemed to indicate continued strength."

Arkansas Republicans.

LITTLE ROCK, April 8.—The Republican state convention met here yesterday. There was a good attendance, about three-fifths of the counties in the state being represented. The platform adopted indorses President Harrison's administration, the protective tariff and reciprocity, and demands a free ballot. Delegates to the Minneapolis convention were instructed for Harrison. General Alger's boom, which was expected to cut some figure in the convention, was not even heard of.

Lincoln's Assassination Recalled.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., April 8.—Captain Rath, who hanged Mrs. Suratt and the other Lincoln conspirators in Washington, was suddenly bereft of reason Tuesday night on the run to Jackson with the mail train. He has been mail agent for twenty years between here and Jackson, and made the latter place his headquarters. Tuesday night it was noticed he did not throw the mail off, and an investigation found him in the car surrounded by the bags staring wildly at vacancy. He was provost of Washington at the close of the war, and retained a vivid recollection of the hanging of the conspirators.

Floods in the South.

ANNISTON, Ala., April 8.—The heavy rains of the past thirty-six hours have caused considerable damage in this vicinity. All trains on the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia Railroad have been abandoned on account of the washing out of a bridge between Rome and this city. At Rome, Ga., the water in the streets is so high that merchants were compelled to remove their goods to the upper floors of the stores. The Coosa river is on a rampage and rising at the rate of a foot an hour.

MURDERER SURRENDERS.
The Leader of Moonshiners' Band Locked Up in Jail.

SOMERSET, Pa., April 8.—"General Sigel" Miller, the reputed leader of the moonshiners, and one of the murderers of Joshua Hochstetler, surrendered to Chief of Police Gilbert yesterday. The chief was just going off duty when he saw three men coming down the street. Stepping into a doorway, he awaited the approach of the strangers, who, from their awkward gait and rough appearance, Gilbert knew were from the mountains. As the men reached the doorway Gilbert, with drawn revolver, stepped in front of them and commanded them to halt. The strangers threw up their hands and came to a standstill.

Gilbert failed to recognize the men until they introduced themselves. Miller said that he desired to surrender to the sheriff before the government detectives got hold of him. Miller said his companions were his brother, Levi Miller, and brother-in-law, George Chapman. Gilbert marched the trio to the lockup, and afterwards to the county jail, where they were given into the keeping of Sheriff Good.

At a later hour Miller confessed that he had killed "Young" Hochstetler in self-defense.

Will Not Be Extradited.

DETROIT, April 8.—Ralph R. Chandler, the absconding cashier of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railroad company, may not be brought back to Detroit, in spite of the efforts of the company, the prosecuting attorney of Wayne county and the police. Chief of Police Starkweather received notice yesterday from the City of Mexico that the authorities there deemed the evidence against Chandler insufficient to convict him of the crime of forgery, on which count the ex-adjutor is asked, and that they would therefore refuse to give him up. Prosecutor Springer said that the refusal to give Chandler up amounted to a snub to the people of the United States.

Fatally Beaten by Her Uncle.

OMAHA, April 8.—Annie Williams, of this city, was attacked by her uncle, Llewellyn Williams yesterday and so badly beaten with a sledge hammer that she will die. Miss Williams is heiress to large property in England. Several months ago her uncle came from England and urged her to turn her inheritance over to him. She refused but offered him a home with her, her father being in Sioux City. He accepted her offer, but after brooding for a time over her refusal to sign the inheritance to him he became crazed and assaulted her. He is now in custody.

Will Case Reversed.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 8.—The supreme court yesterday reversed the will case of Hester Harrison against Maria Bishop, which went up from the circuit court of this county. The will in controversy was that of Thomas Harrison, who died in 1890 and left a will that had been made while he was under guardianship, a person of unsound mind. The question before the supreme court was as to whether a person under such guardianship could make a will. The court held that one could not.

Shot by a Boy.

CHICAGO, April 8.—George Scott, employed on a building being erected at the corner of Henry and Jefferson streets was fatally shot by an unknown boy about fifteen years of age. The boy was a member of a band of young hoodlums who were playing about the building. When ordered to leave by Scott one young fellow drew a revolver and fired three shots, two bullets passing through the man's lungs. So far the youthful murderer has not been captured.

Gold in New Jersey.

TRENTON, April 8.—While boring an artesian well at the Hygeian ice manufactory yesterday considerable rock was brought up which contained quartz in which were traces of gold. State Geologist Snoddy said that there is considerable gold under Trenton, in the Philadelphia gneiss rock that extends to the southwest, and gold had been found in them in that section.

Suicided with Dynamite.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., April 8.—Michael Curry, a rich contractor, of Pittsburg, committed suicide yesterday by blowing himself to pieces with dynamite. The deed was committed in a strip of woods a short distance from his home. Curry stood on a stump of a tree, placed dynamite under him and then ignited the explosive. An arm and a leg were found in the tree tops. Drink was the cause of the deed.

The Third Attempt Successful.

ALLEGHENY, Pa., April 8.—The lifeless body of Mrs. McKeever, aged thirty-three, residing at Catasauqua, was found hanging to a tree in the yard of her home yesterday. She had twice before attempted to take her life. Melancholy and failing mentally were the causes that led her to the act. Three children survive her.

Struck by a Train.

WOONSOCKET, R. I., April 8.—Irving A. Howe, aged fifty, manufacturer of the Hub shirt, 383 Washington street, Boston, was struck by a train at the Fairmount crossing of the New York, Providence and Boston road here yesterday afternoon, and instantly killed.

World's Fair Officers Changed.

CHICAGO, April 8.—William T. Baker, president, and Major Butterworth, secretary and solicitor general of the world's fair, will be retired at today's election. H. N. Higginbotham has been agreed upon as the future president of the board.

The Eighth Victim.

ASHLAND, Pa., April 8.—A descending train of cars on the Garden Plane yesterday struck and ground to pieces beneath the wheels, Louis Kuitz, a pulley repairman. This is the eighth man that has lost his life on this plane.

NEW YORK, April 8.—The war which has been carried on between the building trades and the Pelham Hod Hoisting company ended yesterday afternoon, the result being a complete victory for the trades' building delegates. This settlement ends many strikes, and about 4,000 men returned to work this morning.
